Position Description

Position Concept:

Coordinate efforts of pack leadership and parents to implement a year round plan that will result in new families joining the Cub Scout pack.

Become familiar with successful methods for attracting new families and suggest ways the Pack can improve and maintain good relationships with the school and other neighborhood organizations.

Responsibilities:

- With other pack leadership, attend the district Fall Join Night Kickoff.
- Maintain and develop relationships with your School. Identify a parent from each grade level to communicate joining information to prospective parents.
- Conduct a year-round Cub Scout recruitment program.
- Attend the council Pack Growth Coordinator Training on January 24, 2004.
- Using the Fun at Every Turn Plan and resources, assist with a year-round membership growth plan by distributing promotional flyers, securing school presentations, morning announcements, and newsletter articles about your Cub Scout pack throughout the school year.
